VERSES

(Percussion tacet)

1. From the depths of my heart I thank you, O LORD;
2. I will bow myself down before your holy temple;
3. I called out and you heard, you answered my cry;
4. For the LORD dwells on high, yet cares for the poor;
5. In the face of my foes you safe-guard my life; the depths of my soul filled with your age and strength.

1. Lord, let my prayer arise/Suba mi oración
2. For the LORD dwells on high, yet cares for the poor,

Performance Notes

For Christian faith, this psalm's imagery is a metaphor of Christ's entire ministry. His prayer, his sacrifice, rising up like incense before God, is the laying down of his life for his friends in obedience to his Abba. It summarizes the pattern of true life and worship for all who have “put on” Christ in baptism.

Uses:
Rite of Dedication: incensation of altar and the church.
Evening Prayer: with the lighting of the evening candle and incense.
Reconciliation Service: as a reflective gathering piece or a responsorial psalm.
Prayer of the Faithful: combine the refrain with spoken intercessions at various times, such as All Souls and All Saints or during the season of Lent.
