Our Hope Is in the Lord

Based on Psalms 90 and 121, this hymn of hope reminds us that God's love and faithfulness sustain us through life's challenges. It is a simple message and a comforting prayer that God watches over us. The music captures this simplicity with its reassuring, sturdy melody and basic quarter note movement.

The climactic moment in the melody is at the words, "the love of God stands firm." This is the only time in the song where there are five quarter notes in a row. This phrase also has the highest pitch in the melody, and it can help to allow the energy to move toward this high point. To avoid a plodding feel, sing phrases rather than individual notes. The text will teach you how to phrase and where to breathe. While the piece is scored for SAB choir, a soloist could sing the first part of each verse, with choir and assembly joining on the second part.

This is a multipurpose piece. The text and mood are most appropriate for funeral liturgies and for evening prayer. Its reassuring message suggests use for praying at times of great challenge or tragedy. During Mass, the common words in each verse act like a refrain and make it easier for a community to learn and sing. The piece may be a Communion, thanksgiving or closing hymn.
