Composer Notes

The refrain of “Truth in the Heart” is an adaptation of the Grail translation of Psalm 51:8, “Indeed you love truth in the heart; then in the secret of my heart teach me wisdom.” Why is this offered as a Communion song? Because the very meaning of the Eucharist is that we dwell in Christ and Christ dwells in us. The truth in our hearts, astoundingly, is the eternal Word who became flesh, died, and rose for us. The heart of our hearts is Christ, for as Saint Paul says in Galatians 2:20: “it is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me.” The Eucharist “Christifies” us! In his Confessions, Saint Augustine of Hippo (354–430) describes hearing the voice of God “the way one hears within the heart” and the voice says: “you will feed on me. And you will not change me into you like the food your flesh eats, but you will be changed into me” (Book VII, 16).

Use: This song may be used throughout the year for Communion. In addition, it complements the readings of the following Sundays and celebrations:

Lent/Holy Week — Lent 3 (A) [harden not your hearts];

Lent 4 (A) [cure of the man born blind];

Lent 5 (B) [a covenant written on our hearts];

Holy Thursday

Easter Season — Easter 4 (A, B, C) [the Good Shepherd]

Ordinary Time — Ord. Time 2–3 (A, B) [call of the disciples and Peter];

Ord. Time 5 (C) [call of the disciples and Peter];

Ord. Time 16 (B) [like sheep without a shepherd];

Ord. Time 18 (A) [feeding the five thousand];

Ord. Time 17–21 (B) [Jesus, the Bread of Life];

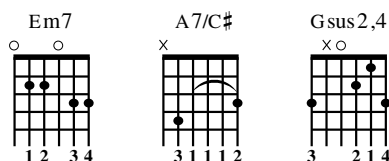

Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ [where I am, there will my servant be];

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus

Ritual Masses — First Communion
