

And It Was Good

INTRO:

Keyboard

E F#m B7 E

VERSES:

E B B7 E

1. Once the world was dark and cold, then God made the light,
 2. Then God made the sky a - bove and the earth be - low,
 3. Then God filled the earth with life, flow - ers plants and trees,
 4. Ev - 'ry - thing was now in place, earth and sky and sea;

F#m B B7 E

1. and God called the new light "day," and the dark - ness "night."
 2. and God filled the clouds with rain to make the riv - ers flow.
 3. an - i - mals to roam the land, fish to swim the seas.
 4. then God blew a might - y breath mak - ing you and me.

Text and music: Jack Miffleton, b. 1942, © 1990, OCP. All rights reserved.

REFRAIN:

And it was good, good, ver - y, ver - y good, and it was good, good, ver - y, ver - y good, and it was good, good, ver - y, ver - y good, it was ver - y, ver - y good.

Note: Refrain may be sung as a descant or ostinato over the verses.