

*Seasonal PsalmLord, Be Merciful (Psalm 51)

This seasonal psalm also appears as the assigned psalm for three Lenten liturgies: Ash Wednesday, First Sunday, Year A and the Fifth Sunday, Year B. It captures the two-fold theme of the season: repentance and conversion (“I acknowledge my offense”), and becoming a new creation in Christ (“the joy of your salvation”). The text underscores the primacy of God’s mercy in both processes—a mercy that is repeatedly taught and embodied by Jesus in the Gospels of this season.

Uses:

Responsorial: Ash Wednesday, First Sunday of Lent A, and Fifth Sunday of Lent B
Common Psalm for Lent
Easter Vigil: Response to Reading VII (Ezekiel 36:16–17a, 18–28)
Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time C
Order of Christian Funerals
Reconciliation and Lament Services

LORD, BE MERCIFUL (PSALM 51)

Dominic MacAller

Refrain: 1st time: Cantor, All repeat; thereafter: All

Lord, be mer - ci - ful, be mer - ci - ful, for we have sinned.

Verses

1. Have mercy on me in your kindness. In your compassion, blot out my offense. O wash me more and more from my guilt and cleanse me from my sin. 2. My offenses truly I know them; my sin is always before me. Against you, you alone, have I sinned; what is evil in your sight I have done.	3. Indeed you love truth in the heart; then in the secret of my heart teach me wisdom. O purify me, then I shall be clean; O wash me, I shall be whiter than snow. 4. A pure heart create for me, God, put a steadfast spirit within me. Do not cast me away, away from your presence, nor deprive me of your holy spirit.
