G C D Em C to Coda ⊕

The musical score is written for a solo instrument in B-flat major, 6/8 time. It consists of three systems of staves. The first system includes an Intro (measures 1-2) and the start of the Refrain (measures 3-4). The second system continues the Refrain (measures 5-8). The third system concludes the Refrain (measures 9-12) and ends with a Coda symbol. Chord changes are indicated above the staves: G, G, C, D in the first system; Em, C, Em, Dsus4, D in the second system; G, C, D, Em, C in the third system. The melody is written in the top staff, and the two harmony parts are in the middle and bottom staves. The tempo is marked 'Slow, steady build' with a quarter note equal to approximately 58 beats per minute.
