Performance Notes

“Journeysong,” a reflection on the Emmaus story, is a self-contained song at the end of the recording Ubi Caritas. It can be combined with the “Gloria” (including the “Greeting and Invitation”) from the Ubi Caritas collection to form an integrated gathering rite for Easter season. To complete the musical possibilities of the rite, adapt one of the chant melodies of the Opening Prayers of Advent and Lent for use with the prayers of the Easter season. “Journeysong” can also be used during other seasons and at other points in the liturgy—for preparation of the gifts, communion, post-communion, or sending forth. Along with the choral version, a simpler guitar version is provided for small ensembles. Note that this guitar version is not strictly compatible with the choral version—it is intended as an alternative.
