RENUE ME, LORD
Bernadette Farrell

Mahatma Gandhi wrote that “a living faith will last in the midst of the blackest storm.” The text of this song is a reflection on faith. Mother Teresa urged us, “Be faithful in small things, because it is in them that your strength lies.” Even at our lowest, when all seems lost, our faith is there, pointing us to God. We turn to God for renewed strength, not simply for our own well-being, but so that we can be more effective in our service of neighbour. We ask for strength to serve. And we ask for joy so that we may serve as a true reflection of Christ.
