The image shows a musical score for the keyboard part of the piece 'God Of The Hungry'. It consists of two systems of music. The first system is labeled 'INTRO: Flowing (♩ = 72-76)' and 'Keyboard'. It features a treble clef staff with a key signature of two flats (Bb and Eb) and a 3/4 time signature. The melody is written in a flowing, eighth-note style. The bass clef staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes. The second system continues the keyboard part with similar notation, including a long note in the treble staff.

Performance Notes

This song is appropriate for any liturgy emphasizing God's command that we care for all people.

The accompaniment should be kept simple: solo piano or two guitars work well; a soft organ or synthesizer pad is also effective. The verses may be sung in a variety of ways: soloists, unison women or men, SATB, or using the three-part arrangement with women, or men, or mixed voices.
