Performance Notes

Carol Jean and I desire that every child be able to say, “God is a part of my life.” We have dedicated our lives to helping children say that from the depths of their hearts. Singing that statement of faith over and over again helps children to become more grounded in that conviction. In this song we help children to say strongly that “God is important to me” and “I am important to God.”

The rhythmic hand-clapping we used on the recording helps the song come alive.
