Performance Notes

This call-and-response hymn is meant to be used as a song for the preparation of the gifts at a Eucharist with children, especially First Eucharist. It can also be an anthem sung by a children's choir as a meditation song after communion. It speaks of the primary actions that are part of the Eucharist: taking and eating, drinking of the cup, listening to God's word, sharing the peace, singing together, praying as one. The refrain can be sung in unison by all present, but is most effective when a children's choir enhances it with the harmonies and descants.
