Performance Notes

With Drums and Dancing is a joyful, exuberant celebration of the wonderful deeds the Lord has done, and continues to do, in our lives. There is a playful, dancing spirit in the piece. In keeping with the spirit of the song, the refrains should be sung with a definite percussive accent given to each word of text. The clear enunciation of consonants will also help to achieve this percussive quality.

A high point occurs each time the refrain begins. Verses should begin gently, then gradually grow in intensity and volume to prepare for the congregation's entrance on the refrain.

This hymn is appropriate for the Easter season, perhaps as closing to the liturgy or at the preparation of the gifts.
