Verse 1

A C#m F#m E
While we were still in sin he came,
A C#m F#m E
the Son of Man became a slave,
A C#m F#m
our hearts to ransom and to save,
E A C#m F#m E
for God so loved the world.

Verse 2

A C#m F#m E
Though God, he came to us in flesh
A C#m F#m E
to prove his love and righteousness,
A C#m F#m
to meet us here in our distress,
E A C#m F#m
for God so loved the world.
E D C#m D E F#m Esus4 E
How sweet the sound: the lost are found.

Refrain 1

D A F#m E D
For God so loved the world, he gave his only Son for us;
F#m E
and whoever should believe will never die.
D A
And God so loved the world,
F#m E B
he gave his only Son for us;
D Esus4 E A C#m F#m
Oh, for God so loved the world,
E A C#m F#m E
for God so loved the world.

Verse 3

A C#m F#m E
The greatest act of empathy:
A C#m F#m E
the God man, hanging on a tree.
A C#m F#m
Such love, and such a mys-ter-y:
E A C#m F#m
for God so loved the world.
E D C#m D E F#m Esus4 E
How sweet the sound: the lost are found.

Refrain 2

D A F#m E D
For God so loved the world, he gave his only Son for us;
F#m E
and whoever should believe will never die.
D A
And God so loved the world,
F#m E B D E
he gave his only Son for us; Oh

Bridge

D F#m
Let the lost and poor cry out,
E
every people and nation shout
D A F#m E
that our God has come to earth to save us, save us.
D F#m
Let the lame rise up and sing,
E
in the streets let freedom ring
D A F#m E
that our God has come to earth to save us.

Refrain 3

D A F#m E D
For God so loved the world, he gave his only Son for us;
F#m E
and whoever should believe will never die.
D A
And God so loved the world,
F#m E B
he gave his only Son for us;
D Esus4 E
Oh, for God so loved the
A C#m F#m E
world. For God so loved the world. || (sing 3 times)
