Over My Head
(Choral Prelude)

African-American Spiritual
Arranged by Stephen M. Lee

Over my head, I hear music in the air. Over my head, I hear music in the air. There must be a God somewhere.

Sing three times, 1st time on “loo”
Stagger breathing throughout

Composer Notes

“Over My Head,” with its haunting melody and ethereal harmonies, can be hummed by a soloist, intoned chorally on “loo,” or sung with or without verses. This unique and adaptable a cappella arrangement would complement any worship celebration in need of either a short, contemplative refrain to gather and call the assembly, or a longer musical offering to accompany ritual action, e.g., Presentation and Preparation of the Gifts. With the refrain’s four-note melodic range, it is well suited for children’s voices. “Over My Head” easily lends itself to the combining of children and adult voices, e.g., children singing the refrain’s melody while others sing the harmony.
