

A BRIGHT AND SHINING PRESENCE

1. A bright and shin - ing pres - ence In Naz - a - reth ap -
2. Be - fore the Ark, King Da - vid Leapt up to greet his
3. Some shep-herds come re - joic - ing To view the ho - ly
4. Now we in turn re - mem - ber And pon - der God's de -

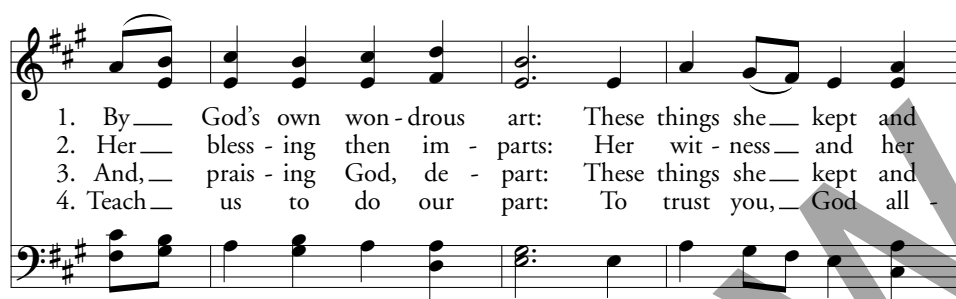

1. pears. A strange an - gel - ic mes - sage Re - sounds
2. Lord; The son of one thought bar - ren Leaps up
3. birth With tales of an - gel voic - es Pro - claim -
4. sign Made fruit - ful in a wom - an, Her child,

1. in Ma - ry's ears That she would bear a man - child
2. to greet the Word. E - liz - a - beth the a - ged
3. ing peace on earth. They see the child with Ma - ry
4. a ra - diant sign. May she who lived to serve you

30116824

A BRIGHT AND SHINING PRESENCE, CONT.

1. By — God's own won - drous art: These things she — kept and
2. Her — bless - ing then im - parts: Her wit - ness — and her
3. And, — prais - ing God, de - part: These things she — kept and
4. Teach — us to do our part: To trust you, — God all —

1. pon - dered With - in — her won - d'ring heart.
2. wis - dom For Ma - ry's maid - en heart.
3. pon - dered With - in — her moth - er's heart.
4. lov - ing, With mind — and strength and heart.

Text: 76 76 D; Michael Joncas, b. 1951, © 2009, Jan Michael Joncas Trust. Published by OCP. All rights reserved.
Music: ELLACOMBE; Gesangbuch der Herzog, Wirtembergischen Katholischen Hofkapelle, 1784, alt.; adapt. fr. Würth's Katholisches Gesangbuch, 1863; arr. by William H. Monk, 1823–1889.

Alternate hymn tune: LLANGLOFFEN