More of you, less of me
is what I'm asking, is what I need,

More of you, less of me
is what I'm asking, is what I need.
In my life and in my soul:

May you increase as I decrease.

May you grow as I surrender to your love,
to your peace, to your joy.
