Hail the Day That Sees Him Rise

LLANFAIR, 77 77 with alleluias

Robert Williams, 1781–1821
Charles Wesley, 1707–1788, alt.
Arranged by Trevor Thomson
Acc. by Scott Soper

INTRO (\( \text{\textit{q}} = \text{ca. 112} \))

VERSES

1. Hail the day that sees him rise
2. There for him high triumph waits;
3. Highest heav’n its Lord receives;
4. See! he lifts his hands above,
5. Lord, though parted from our sight
6. There with you we shall remain,

To his throne beyond the skies,
Lift your heads, eternal gates;
Yet he loves the earth he leaves;
See! he shows the wounds of love.
Far beyond the starry height,
Share the glory of your reign,

Additional text and music, and arrangement © 2013, Spirit & Song®, a division of OCP. All rights reserved.
1. Christ, the Lamb for sinners giv’n,
2. He has conquered death and sin;
3. Though returning to his throne,
4. Hark! his gracious lips bestow,
5. Lift our hearts that we may rise
6. There your face unclouded view,

Bm D/F# G A D E7 A

1. Enters now the highest heav’n!
2. Take the King of glory in.
3. Still he calls the world his own.
4. Blessings on his church below.
5. One with you beyond the skies:
6. Find our heav’n of heav’ns in you.

D Bm D/F# G A D Bm G A

1-5

1-5. ia!

D G G
6. lu - ia!  Al - le - lu - ia!  Al - le - lu - ia!

6. ia!

We will rise, lifted high; on the wings_

Play 4 times

Play 4 times

Play 4 times
of the eagle we shall fly. We will rise, with you.