⊕ CODA

The musical score for the CODA section consists of two systems of three staves each. The first system begins with a treble clef and a key signature of two flats (Bb). The first staff has a melodic line with a slur over the first two measures and a fermata over the third. The second staff has a similar melodic line. The third staff has a bass line with a slur over the first two measures and a fermata over the third. The first system ends with a double bar line. The second system continues the music. The first staff has a melodic line with a slur over the first two measures and a fermata over the third. The second staff has a similar melodic line. The third staff has a bass line with a slur over the first two measures and a fermata over the third. The second system ends with a double bar line. The score includes various musical notations such as slurs, fermatas, and dynamic markings (mf and mp). Chord symbols are placed above the staves: Ebadd9, F/Eb, and Ebadd9. A large, semi-transparent watermark reading 'Preview' is overlaid diagonally across the entire page.
