The musical score is written in 4/4 time. The Descant part is a single melodic line in the treble clef. The Melody part is also in the treble clef and includes the lyrics. The Keyboard part consists of two staves, treble and bass clef, providing harmonic accompaniment. The lyrics are: 'There is a hun - ger for the word_ of God_ for the word of God_ There is a prom-ised from heav - en, light for our way; there is a hun-ger for the'.

The musical score consists of three systems. The first system includes a vocal line in treble clef and a piano accompaniment in bass clef. The vocal line has five lines of lyrics, each with a blank space for a note. The piano accompaniment features chords and moving lines. The second system continues the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The third system shows the piano accompaniment in both treble and bass clefs. The score includes dynamic markings like 'D.C.' and a large 'Preview' watermark.

VERSES:

The image shows two staves of musical notation in 4/4 time. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a 4/4 time signature. It contains a whole rest followed by a whole note, then a measure with a fermata and the number '8' above it. This is followed by a double bar line and the word 'Fine'. The second staff continues with a treble clef and a 4/4 time signature. It starts with a triplet of eighth notes, followed by a series of eighth and quarter notes. The piece concludes with a double bar line and the marking 'D.C.' above the final note.
