WATER

Refrain based on Is 55:1-2;
 Verses based on Ez 17:12, Jn 5:1-7,
 Is 55:1-12, Ex 14:12, Jn 20:34, Mt 3:16
 Omer Westendorf

Eugene Englert
 Refrain: American Folk Tune

VERSE 1: Cantor

1. May we be like the fruitful trees
 that grow beside the stream,
 the stream that from the temple flows,
 to rescue and redeem. (to Refrain)

REFRAIN: All

Come to the wa - ter, you who thirst, the wa - ter that the Lord will give. We come to you, O Lord of love, to thirst no more and ev - er live. Fine

VERSES 2-6: Cantor

2. Your water, like Bethesda's pool, is known to save and cure.
 No cost to us, but priceless still;
 we come, the rich and poor. (to Refrain)
3. When Moses raised his outstretched hand
 he made the sea divide;
 you save us, Lord, in cleansing flood that flows out from your side. (to Refrain)
4. Our Lord himself was once baptized in condescending love.
 He saw the Spirit then descend,
 appearing like a dove. (to Refrain)
5. Your gift of water, God, brings life
 and freshness to the earth;
 to those baptized into your Son
 blessed water brings new birth. (to Refrain)
6. How wondrous are your waters, Lord, within creation's plan!
 Sustaining every living thing
 since life on earth began! (to Refrain)
