Composer Notes

"The Grace of God" may be sung in different ways:

- as an assembly hymn in unison (with optional choir harmony)
- as a processional piece, especially at Communion, with the assembly singing the refrain and a cantor or choir (in harmony) singing the verses
- as a basic SATB anthem at times of reflection

While the piece may be sung throughout the Church year, it is especially suitable for Eastertide, Pentecost, and celebrations related to the sacraments of initiation. It may also be used for baptisms (verse two) and funerals (verses one and four).

To add tonal color, an instrumental part in C or B-flat is provided.

The text is adapted from Titus, chapters 2 and 3, the second reading on the feast of the Baptism of the Lord in Year C.
