PREFACE

Glory & Praise is a name that resonates in the fifty-year history of contemporary Catholic liturgical music. Originally published in 1977 by North American Liturgy Resources (NALR), the first volume was a collection of songs by the remarkable group of pastoral musicians who made up the second wave of “folk” composers of the post-Conciliar era, most notably Carey Landry and the composers who came to be known as the St. Louis Jesuits—Bob Dufford, John Foley, Tim Manion, Roc O’Connor, and Dan Schutte, whose song “Glory and Praise to Our God” inspired the publication’s title.

In an era when periodical missals were still trying to define a common repertoire, Glory & Praise helped to establish the guitar-based “folk” style as mainstream, and it played an important role in reducing the need for parishes to create their own home-printed songbooks, the prevailing custom at the time.

As Glory & Praise grew in popularity, new music publishing prompted NALR to release Volumes 2, 3 and 4, which included songs by Grayson Warren Brown, Rory Cooney, the Dameans, Michael Joncas, Tom Kendzia, and many more. These were eventually followed by a comprehensive hardbound edition that included an Order of Mass and a modest selection of well-known traditional hymns.

OCP acquired the NALR copyrights in 1994 and published its own version three years later: the bestselling Glory & Praise, Second Edition. That version reflected the growth in Catholic liturgical repertoire with the inclusion of Spanish and bilingual songs, new complete Mass settings, a comprehensive Psalter, and a number of songs by newer composers such as Jaime Cortez, Bernadette Farrell, Bob Hurd, Paul Inwood, Scott Soper, Christopher Walker, and others.

Now, almost twenty years later, OCP is proud to release Glory & Praise, Third Edition, which reflects the continuing growth and development of liturgical music in North America. The Mass settings utilize the official texts of the Roman Missal, Third Typical Edition, and the Order of Mass features the ICEL chants as required by the Bishops’ Committee on Divine Worship. In addition, the assembly edition with lectionary readings features verbatim settings of the Responsorial Psalms and Gospel Acclamations from OCP’s very popular Respond & Acclaim series.

Spanish and bilingual songs have been carefully selected to serve those occasions such as Christmas and the Easter Triduum when the diverse communities of a parish come together for liturgy. Many songs popular with youth from the Spirit & Song repertoire are likewise included, especially those that have crossed over into mainstream usage. And, in this third edition, OCP is pleased to include songs by such composers as David Haas and Marty Haugen that were not included in the second edition, as well as a significant number of traditional hymns, some with contemporary guitar arrangements.

In short, Glory & Praise, Third Edition presents a common repertoire for the cross-generational, English-speaking communities of the Church today.

We want to acknowledge the dedicated work of our liturgical composers, both past and present, without whom the various editions of this hymnal would not be possible. We also express our gratitude to the internal staff and external consultants who worked so diligently on this project. Without the talents and hard work of these dedicated individuals, this new edition would not have seen the light of day.

May the Lord “who gives light to our days” unite our diverse communities into one! May our song ever be, “Glory and praise to our God!”
