Composer Notes

This gentle piece is ideal for times of meditation.

Liturgical and Ritual uses: Post-Communion at Mass, during Lent, ordinations, celebration of the Rites of Christian Initiation, funerals, commissioning of Lay Ecclesial Ministers, and whenever a community or an individual celebrates ministry or service.

“Be Still and Know That I Am God” can be found on Morning & Evening [Prayer for the Commute, Prayer for the Journey] (OCP 20099), a double CD of Morning Prayers and Evening Prayers to pray during one’s commute.

When sung as a congregational hymn, this SATB setting helps support the assembly’s singing.
