Composer Notes

The original version of “Turn Away from Sin” was commissioned by the Norbertine Order in celebration of the 900th Anniversary of the Conversion of Saint Norbert (June 6). The text to the refrain is adapted from the story of the saint’s conversion in 1115. After being thrown from his horse during a thunderstorm, he heard the words from Psalm 34: “Turn away from evil and do good. Seek after peace and follow after it.”

There are two optional sets of refrains and verses. The first option includes verses from Psalm 51, the Responsorial Psalm for Ash Wednesday. Hence, this option could be sung throughout the entire Lenten season: e.g., during preludes, the preparation of gifts, reconciliation services, devotional processions, and retreat settings. The second option is intended for Communion processions during Mass. The verses are from Psalm 34, the Responsorial Psalm for the Fourth Sunday of Lent (C). The refrain brings together the themes of repentance and the Eucharist as a source of God’s mercy and forgiveness, thus making this an ideal Communion ostinato for the Lenten Season. An optional musical interlude is provided.
