THOUGH THE MOUNTAINS FALL

Gregory Norbet

Verse 1

1. Though the moun-tains fall to depths be-low, the sea en-com-pass

1. all, my love will al-ways fol-low you, wher-ev-er you shall

1. go. For I will help you to dis-cov-er the

1. deep-est dream your heart con-ceives; where love a-bides, there

1. love gives life, and love will lead you home.

Verse 2

2. Do not let the pain of grief and hurt take hope from with-in your

2. soul. Rise to greet each oth-er on your way, and speak a

2. kind word from your heart. For love will lead you to the moun-tain,

2. where you can see the high-est truth: that God is love, and with this love

2. does God in your heart stand tall, does God in your heart stand tall.
