Verse 1

C Csus4/G C F/A G
Oh, we were wand'ring in the dark;

C/E F Fadd9/G C
we had lost our hope and way.

Csus4/G C F/A G
And we were restless in our hearts;

C/E F Fadd9/G C
how we needed to be saved.

Em7 F
And so to rescue all your own

C/G Gsus4
you sent to us your only son.

C F/A G
A light to fall, a peace to bring:

C/E F Gsus4 C F/A
the coming of our Christ, the King.

C Csus4/G C F/A G
The Word made flesh, the light from light,

C/E F Fadd9/G C
a cry that pierced our end - less noise.

Csus4/G C F/A G
A child to speak into our pain,

C/E F Fadd9/G C
restoring unto us our joy.

To teach our hearts and heal our wounds,

C/G Gsus4
replace our doubt with heaven's truth.

C F/A G
The broken, healed, the lost, redeemed:
C/E F Gsus4 C F/A
the beauty of our Christ, the King.

C Csus4/G C F/A G
Though heav - en's glory he had shown,
C/E F Fadd9/G C
all our praises turned to scorn.

Csus4/G C F/A G
The gift of mercy that he gave,
C/E F Fadd9/G C
we returned with cross and thorn.

Em7 F
Yet to the end he loved us still,

C/G Gsus4
surrendered to the Father's will.

C F/A G
Forgiveness was his offering:

C/E F Gsus4 C Csus4/G
the mercy of our Christ, the King.

Verse 4

C Csus4/G C F/A G
And though they laid him in the tomb,
C/E F Fadd9/G C
in the silence of the grave;

Csus4/G C F/A G
no stone could keep the love of God
C/E F Fadd9/G C
from the ones he came to save.

Em7 F
And so in pow'r and radiant light

C/G Gsus4
he vanquished death and rose to life.

C F/A G
Now with the heavens I shall sing

C/E F Gsus4 C
the glory of our Christ, the King.

G7sus4 C F/A G
Now with the heavens I shall sing

C/E F Gsus4 C F/A
the glory of our Christ, the King.
