Composer Notes

“All Good Gifts” is a song of gratitude that echoes Saint Paul’s assertion in Ephesians 1:3 that every spiritual blessing from the heavens is lavished on us! Themes of thanksgiving, gifts, blessings, and the hope to which we are called, all resonate with the text and musical colors of the piece. I am sincerely grateful for the life and ministry of Sister Sue Bruno, for whom this piece was composed. Liturgically, this song works well during the Presentation of Gifts, or sung as a Communion meditation or song of praise. There are many options to embellish the timbre of the piece with the included solo instrument and handbells parts. Additionally, a string quartet arrangement is available online (30141075).
