Composer Notes

Since its release in 1995, "Fly Like a Bird" has found a place in the hearts of choirs, ensembles, and congregations across several generations and denominations. It has been sung at liturgy for the Preparation of the Gifts and for the Song of Praise after Communion, as well as for Reconciliation services and funerals. Inspired by Psalm 139, it is also useful for youth retreats, prayer services, and at Confirmation classes and gatherings. I am grateful to Iván Díaz for this new Spanish translation that I hope will help unite bilingual communities in prayer.
