As long as humanity lives, there will be darkness in this world. But in counterpoint to this darkness, there is light—the same light that spoke the dawn and lit the stars, that burst forth from the tomb, and transfigured on the hill. This light is both incarnation and resurrection; it still echoes; scattered throughout the universe, written within us all. The light is Christ, our God that will forever endure—our hope in the long night—the lamp for wandering hearts.

My hope is that wherever the Church might find itself struggling in darkness, this song will find a home. May it be a reminder that Love and Light are always present, and will always overcome.

YOU ARE THE LIGHT
Sarah Hart

1. You are the light that stands alone in depth of night and eye of storm. Where shadows fall, you enter in; ignite with hope what dark has dimmed. And though our eyes may fail to see, it is the heart that's given sight through night and storm, to trust in you. Up on our path you are the light.

2. You are the word that's written deep within the hearts of all who long for endless days beyond the skies, for peace on earth, a kingdom come. We sing the name that heals our souls, and share the way, the truth, the life. For hearts that have been lost, we speak the word: you are the light.

3. O, you are God who spoke the dawn; the savior son who came in flesh to be a lamp for wakening hearts, to steal our trust in you. Up on our path you are the light. We look to you; you are the light.
