PREFACE

Dear Parish Musician,

Heritage Missal was created in response to many of our customers' requests for a music and worship book that meets a few specific needs:

- 1) It is a lower-cost alternative to OCP's larger and more comprehensive Breaking Bread worship book.
- 2) It contains those songs most widely-used from among OCP's large catalog of published repertoire.
- 3) The music selections in Heritage Missal change less frequently than in Breaking Bread, providing a stable repertoire similar to a hardbound hymnal; yet
- 4) It is updated annually with carefully selected newer songs, in order to provide customers greater access to the rich treasure of songs being written today.

As with OCP's other pew worship books, Heritage Missal is supported with both Keyboard and Guitar accompaniment books. Similar to a hardbound hymnal, the song numbers among all editions match each other. Because Responsorial Psalm and Gospel Acclamation texts change each year (to follow the Lectionary cycle of readings), accompaniments for the Responsorial Psalms and Gospel Acclamations in the front pages of Heritage Missal are found separately in OCP's annual publication, Respond & Acclaim.

Choral versions of many of the songs found in Heritage Missal are available in the economical Choral Praise, Third Edition. The numbers in Choral Praise do not match those in Heritage Missal. The missal lists the choral edition song number at the top left of the song with the code "CP3#___" for songs included in Choral Praise.

The Heritage Missal Guitar Accompaniment Book contains the melody, chords, and selected harmony parts for every song contained in the Heritage Missal assembly book. In all hymns and songs, the chords above the melody are designed for playable progressions on the guitar; however, for some hymns, the chords do not always represent a strict harmonic analysis of the keyboard accompaniments and choral arrangements, which would be unwieldy on guitar. These hymns are identified with a footnote that directs the keyboardist to play from the chord symbols when in ensemble with the guitar. Alternately, the guitarist may choose to let the keyboard player accompany these hymns alone. On hymns containing this footnote, it might also be necessary to sing in unison to avoid harmonic clashes with the choral parts.

Suggested introductions for songs are provided by the use of brackets within the music. A thorough set of indexes is provided to facilitate song selection for liturgical worship.

The Heritage Missal accompaniment books go through a cycle of being revised every four years. In the intervening years, new songs are added to the back of Heritage Missal in the "Additional Music" section, and as supplements to the accompaniment books. The current revision cycle is as follows:

- Liturgical year 2018 (books available Fall 2017): Revision
- Liturgical year 2019 (books available Fall 2018): Supplement
- Liturgical year 2020 (books available Fall 2019): Supplement
- Liturgical year 2021 (books available Fall 2020): Supplement
- Liturgical year 2022 (books available Fall 2021): Revision

We hope that you will find this book easy to use and enjoyable to play, and that it will enhance the worship experience at your parish.

Presentation and Preparation of the Gifts
The norms on the manner of singing [this song] are the same as for the Entrance chant. The purpose of this chant is to...foster the unity of those who have been gathered, introduce their thoughts to the mystery of the liturgical season or festivity, and accompany the procession of the priest and ministers. Instrumental music is also appropriate. (Sing to the Lord, from #173, #142, #174)

Although it is not necessary to sing a recessional hymn, when it is a custom, all may join in a hymn or song after the dismissal...At times, e.g., if there has been a song after Communion, it may be appropriate to choose an option other than congregational song for the recessional. Other options include a choral or instrumental piece or, particularly during Lent, silence. (Sing to the Lord, #199)
