Composer Notes

Based on Colossians 3:3, “Our Life Is Hidden with Christ” celebrates our initiation and ever-deepening immersion in the paschal mystery of the risen Christ. It is especially appropriate for Easter season, but can be used year-round for Communion or Preparation of the Gifts, since the verses speak to the “every Sunday” meaning of the Eucharist. They express our baptismal call to service, how the Word shapes us, how sharing the Eucharist makes us one body in Christ, and the ethical call flowing from the Eucharist—a call that can only be fulfilled beyond the liturgy in lives that seek to build God’s reign of justice, mercy and compassion.
