Composer Notes

Psalm 143 is a wonderful, personal, and intimate heart-to-heart between David and God.

David, chosen by God, achieved much success as a young man, and felt led by God. As David's success grew, he left God out of his plans. When his heart began to ache for God, he sought refuge in him again. This Psalm is a prayer of simplicity and trust that God will fulfill our heart's desire and lead us. When we long for personal intimacy with God, this Psalm voices our need for God to answer our prayer.

Psalm 143 may be sung effectively by a soloist/cantor, or a unison choir of any size, especially when multiple voices are unavailable. Sing it at any time there needs to be a focus on prayer, especially during Advent, Lent, and Penitential Services. The optional handbell notes help call the mind into prayer and meditation.
