VERSES 1-3

D.S.

BRIDGE

The Bridge section consists of two systems of two staves each. The first system begins with a treble clef, a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and a common time signature. The melody in the upper staff features a sequence of quarter notes: G4, A4, B-flat4, C5, followed by a double bar line. The lower staff provides accompaniment with eighth notes. The second system continues the melody and accompaniment, ending with a double bar line and repeat signs.

FINAL REFRAIN

The Final Refrain section consists of three systems of two staves each. The first system features a treble clef, a key signature of two flats, and a common time signature. The melody in the upper staff is composed of eighth notes. The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The third system concludes the section with a double bar line and repeat signs.

(CODA)

The Coda section consists of two systems of two staves each. The first system features a treble clef, a key signature of two flats, and a common time signature. The melody in the upper staff includes a fermata over a half note. The second system continues the melody and accompaniment, with the word "rit." (ritardando) written above the first staff. The section concludes with a double bar line and repeat signs.
