

WE BELIEVE

Estela García-López

We walk by faith and not by sight,
we do not fear the dark of night.
God is our strength, the one we seek,
we hear his voice and we believe.

Though we may doubt and we may stray,
the God of mercy leads the way.
We fast and pray, our sins we grieve.
Forgiveness flows and we believe.

The Son of God, in love and grace,
laid down his life and then was raised.
Through Christ we rise in victory:
promise fulfilled and we believe.

God make us strong, increase our faith,
until we see you face to face.
Where there's no want, where there's no need;
only your grace and we believe.

This text was inspired by a mix of scriptural references. I used the tune, O W^AL^Y W^AL^Y, as I was developing the text but it also works well with other tunes like OLD HUNDREDTH. I recommend this piece for general use when readings have an emphasis on Christian life and faith.
