PREFACE

Dear Parish Musician,

Heritage Missal was created in response to many of our customers' requests for a music and worship book that meets a few specific needs:

- 1) It is a lower-cost alternative to OCP's larger and more comprehensive Breaking Bread worship book.
- 2) It contains a larger number of traditional hymns and the most widely-used songs from OCP's catalog.
- 3) It is updated semi-annually with carefully selected newer songs, in order to provide customers greater access to the rich treasure of songs being written today.
- 4) It includes resources for chanting the antiphons, and makes larger use of Latin responses, especially during Holy Week.

As with OCP's other pew worship books, Heritage Missal is supported with both Keyboard and Guitar accompaniment books. Similar to a hardbound hymnal, the song numbers among all editions match each other. Because responsorial psalm and gospel acclamation texts change each year (to follow the Lectionary cycle of readings), accompaniments for the Responsorial Psalms and Gospel Acclamations in the front pages of Heritage Missal are found separately in OCP's annual publication, Respond & Acclaim.

Choral versions of many of the songs found in Heritage Missal are available in the economical Choral Praise: Fourth Edition. (Songs in Choral Praise need to be located by title, as the numbers do not match Heritage Missal.)

The Heritage Missal Guitar Accompaniment Book contains the melody, chords, and selected harmony parts for every song contained in the Heritage Missal assembly book. In all hymns and songs, the chords above the melody are designed for playable progressions on the guitar; however, for some hymns, the chords do not always represent a strict harmonic analysis of the keyboard accompaniments and choral arrangements, which would be unwieldy on guitar. These hymns are identified with a footnote that directs the keyboardist to play from the chord symbols when in ensemble with the guitar. Alternately, the guitarist may choose to let the keyboard player accompany these hymns alone. On hymns containing this footnote, it might also be necessary to sing in unison to avoid harmonic clashes with the choral parts.

Suggested introductions for songs are provided by the use of brackets within the music. A thorough set of indexes is provided to facilitate song selection for liturgical worship.

While the missal is published annually, the Heritage Missal accompaniment books go through a cycle of being revised every four years. In the second intervening year, new songs are added to the back of Heritage Missal in the "Additional Music" section, and as supplements to the accompaniment books. The current revision cycle is as follows:

- Liturgical year 2023 (books available Fall 2023): Supplement
- Liturgical year 2024 (books available Fall 2025): Revision
- Liturgical year 2028 (books available Fall 2027): Supplement

Heritage Missal will continue to be updated with the current readings, antiphons, and Responsorial Psalms each year. New music will be added in 2025.

Although it is not necessary to sing a recessional hymn, when it is a custom, all may join in a hymn or song after the dismissal...At times, e.g., if there has been a song after Communion, it may be appropriate to choose an option other than congregational song for the recessional. Other options include a choral or instrumental piece or, particularly during Lent, silence. (Sing to the Lord, #199)
