Composer Notes

The question “How shall we receive you?” is one that had been on my heart and mind for a while before writing this song. What a blessing to be able to receive the Lord in the Eucharist! Upon reflection, I realized that all too frequently I received him without the full reverence that he is due. I wanted to write something that might help us (as a body of believers) focus on who we are receiving, and how we should be receiving him. As I prayed about this, and studied the Catechism, it seemed that humility, praise, gratitude, and an attempt to live a life faithful to Christ were a good starting place for this proper reception. I hope that this song is a blessing to you in your journey of drawing closer to Christ!
