Composer Notes

During Advent, we live in the tension between the "now" and the "not yet." Christ has been born, yet we await his return, and though ancient prophecies are fulfilled, his work in us and in the world continues. In this piece, I sought to shape the words of Isaiah 11 into an exhortation to praise and a prayer that God will strengthen the Church to share in and carry out this work until the earth is "filled with the knowledge of the Lord."

I am grateful to my teachers and mentors, especially Mr. Brent Stamey, organist at Saint Meinrad Archabbey, whose guidance helped refine the organ accompaniment.
