The Liturgy communicates a most profound reality: who God is and who we are before God. The celebration of the Eucharist is the Catholic Church's fullest and deepest statement of faith. At the Eucharist, God's people come together to hear the word of the Lord, to pray for the world's needs, to praise God and give thanks for his creative and saving work, to receive Christ Jesus in Communion and then to be sent forth in the Spirit as apostles of the Gospel.

The annual issue of Breaking Bread serves as a guide to the Order of Mass, the liturgical year, various sacraments and rites of the Church. The Scripture readings, psalms, prayers, songs and ritual music of the liturgical assembly are a source of inspiration and formation. The Christian community, strengthened and transformed, is thus sent forth into the world. This missal also serves as a resource for the domestic church and catechumens in preparation for the celebration of the Church's liturgy. As we journey with Matthew in Year A of the liturgical cycle, may we allow the reign of God to break into human life as good news.

1. Drawn by his word, Jesus’ apostles followed their Lord on his way, opened their hearts, pondered his message, shared in his life, day by day.

2. Drawn by a call, up a high mountain, sent on a mission abroad: “Go through the world, welcome dis-ci-ples, bap-tize the Peo-ple of God.”

3. Drawn by a dream, Jesus’ apostles shone in their words and their deeds: healing the sick, strength-ning the wea-ry, com-fort-ing folks in their need.

4. Drawn through a dream, Jesus’ apostles shone in their Church with their prayer, still of-fer hope, still serve as shep-herds guard-ing the flock in their care.

5. Drawn through the past, blessed apostles still guide the

THE WONDROUS NEWS

Dan Schutte

Acc #926

Refrain

Go, peo-ple of God, and tell of the won-drous news.

510
Go, people of God, and tell of the wondrous news.

Christ, risen in glory, now lives again.

Go into the world and shout from the highest hill:

Death never can hold us. God's love has won the day.

Verses

1. Be home for pilgrim feet and shelter for the lost. The kingdom of God is waiting now within our hearts.
2. Be food for hungry hearts and drink for those who thirst. The reign of the Savior, Jesus Christ, is close at hand.
3. Be friend for those who mourn and strength for those who fall. The dark of the night is passed and gone in Christ the Lord.
4. Be light for those who seek and rest for those who toil. The joy that the Lord has promised us will be complete.

I will choose Christ, I will choose love, I choose to serve.

I give my heart, I give my life, I give my all to you.

1. How many times must he call my name and show to me that he is God? And as I walk this road with you, teach me to love.
2. Christ, my teacher and healer, teach my heart and heal my soul. 3. As I look upon your cross, so too must I die with you. And with the death of my own desires, I'll rise with you.
