Welcome to Spirit & Psalm, OCP’s annual, contemporary psalm and Gospel acclamation resource! Spirit & Psalm combines:

- Contemporary musical settings by many of the writers found in OCP’s popular contemporary hymnal, Spirit & Song.
- Verbatim texts from the Lectionary for Mass.
- The same convenient, liturgical organization and ease of use pioneered by OCP’s popular Respond & Acclaim series.

Pair it with Spirit & Song, or any other parish music missal or hymnal, to infuse a more contemporary musical sound into the Liturgy of the Word.

Responses, Acclamations, Verses

Most of the “refrains” in this volume—labeled “Response” or “Acclamation,” depending on the liturgical moment—are written for cantor/assembly and two-part harmony. These two-part harmonies can usually be performed with the upper voice sung an octave lower (typically by tenors/baritones), and the bottom voice sung at pitch (typically by altos). Feel free to experiment with other voicing options as appropriate for your musicians.

The responsorial psalm verses and the Gospel verse are designed to be proclaimed by a cantor.

Music Notation

Although Spirit & Psalm uses mostly conventional music notation, you will observe that the psalm verses are set in a somewhat unusual format. This notational style is designed for flexibility; the verses may be sung in either a metered style more typical of contemporary psalmody, or they may be freely chanted in much the same the manner as Respond & Acclaim. More on that below, but first, there are also a few nonstandard markings that you will encounter.

Omission Marks

As is often the case in the Lectionary, a single psalm may have one or two verses that contain significantly fewer words than the other verses. In these situations, the cantor part is marked with (— — — — ), a convention that will be familiar to Respond & Acclaim users. Spirit & Psalm couples those markings with large square brackets [ ] around the entire musical passage that is to be omitted. These omitted segments can be as short as one measure or as long as eight measures, so be sure to scan ahead to see where the omitted passage ends.

In Example 1 on the next page—taken from the Book of Daniel (Daniel 3, p. 201)—the cantor will skip the bracketed measures for the second through fifth verses, singing directly from the end of the first system to the beginning of the third system.

Lyric Repeat Marks

When a single psalm has one verse with many more words than the other verses, a segment of music must be repeated. Unlike traditional repeat signs, which indicate that a musical segment is always repeated on every verse, these “lyric repeat marks” are meant to show that the music is only repeated for a specific verse. Thus, in Example 1 (shown on the next page), only the first part of the fourth verse will be repeated (indicated by the labels “4a” and “4b”). Additional examples of these nonstandard repeats can be found on p. 29 (Psalm 146), p. 223 (Psalm 69), and p. 301 (Psalm 25).
Melodic Interpretation

The “hybrid” chant/metrical psalm verses in this resource are kept intentionally simple melodically. As cantors become more comfortable with the style, some improvisation around the melody is appropriate, particularly as the verses progress. The recording library offers some examples of this.

Guitar Chord Diagrams

Chord diagrams have been included for titles with less-common chord names. These diagrams use chord voicings that will sound full and complete with or without keyboard accompaniment. A larger list of guitar chord diagrams can be found at www.ocp.org/en-us/charts.

Introductions

Throughout this book, there are some cases of written-out introductions to the Responsorial Psalms and Gospel Acclamations. The majority of the settings, however, do not have introductions. In these cases, you may play the entire response (or acclamation) as an instrumental introduction.

Liturgy Preparation Assistance

Recordings

To aid parish musicians in learning these new psalm and gospel settings, a 5-disc box set recording is available (edition 30141805). Complete versions of every psalm and Gospel acclamation in the entire book have been recorded (all verses!), offering a performance example for cantors to emulate or use as a jumping-off place for their own interpretation.

Indexes

Scriptural, alphabetical, and ritual indexes are provided beginning on p. 346 for easy reference.
